NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. The results for the first six months are not necessarily indicative of results for the full fiscal year, because the Company's business, in common with the businesses of retailers generally, is subject to seasonal influences, with higher levels of sales and income generally realized in the second half of the year.
2. The preceding data are unaudited and reflect all normal recurring adjustments, the use of retail statistics, and accruals and deferrals among periods required to match costs properly with the related revenue or activity, considered necessary by the Company for a fair presentation of its financial statements for the periods reported, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices consistently applied.
3. On February 11, 2000, the Company adopted the provisions of the SEC's Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 101 related to layaway sales effective as of January 31, 1999. Accordingly, the Company restated its earnings for the first three quarters of the fiscal year ended January 29, 2000. The Company recorded a one-time, non-cash, after-tax charge of $5.2 million in the first quarter of fiscal 2000 for the cumulative effect of the accounting change. The prior periods presented in these Financial Statements have been restated and include the impact of the accounting change.
4. The Company's cash payments for interest and income taxes are as follows:

	TWENTY-SIX WEEKS ENDED
	JULY 29, 2000	JULY 31, 1999
	(In Thousands)
Cash paid for:
Interest on debt	$ 16,083	$ 8,893
Income taxes	$186,564	$184,027

5. In October 1988, the Company completed the sale of its former Zayre Stores division to Ames Department Stores, Inc. ("Ames"). In April 1990, Ames filed for protection under Chapter 11 of the Federal Bankruptcy Code and in December 1992, Ames emerged from bankruptcy under a plan of reorganization.

The Company remains contingently liable for the leases of most of the former Zayre stores still operated by Ames. The Company believes that the Company's contingent liability on these leases will not have a material effect on the Company's financial condition.

The Company is also contingently liable on certain leases of its former warehouse club operations (BJ's Wholesale Club and HomeBase), which was spun off by the Company in fiscal 1990 as Waban Inc. During fiscal 1998, Waban Inc. was renamed HomeBase, Inc. and spun-off its BJ's Wholesale Club division (BJ's Wholesale Club, Inc.). HomeBase, Inc. and BJ's Wholesale Club, Inc. are primarily liable on their respective leases and have indemnified the Company for any amounts the Company may have to pay with respect to such leases. In addition, HomeBase, Inc., BJ's Wholesale Club, Inc. and the Company have entered into agreements under which BJ's Wholesale Club, Inc. has substantial indemnification responsibility with respect to such HomeBase, Inc. leases. The Company is also contingently liable on certain leases of BJ's Wholesale Club, Inc. for which both BJ's Wholesale Club, Inc. and HomeBase, Inc. remain liable. The Company believes that its contingent liability on the HomeBase, Inc. and BJ's Wholesale Club, Inc. leases will not have a material effect on the Company's financial condition.

The Company is also contingently liable on certain store leases of its former Hit or Miss division which was sold by the Company in September 1995.

8. During March 2000, the Company completed its $750 million stock repurchase program and announced its intention to repurchase an additional $1 billion of common stock over several years. During the six months ended July 29, 2000, the Company repurchased 18.4 million shares at a cost of $346.7 million. Since the inception of the $1 billion stock repurchase program, the Company has repurchased 15.7 million shares at a cost of $293.5 million.
9. During July 2000 the Company entered into a $250 million, 364-day revolving credit agreement. This is in addition to the Company's existing $500 million revolving credit facility. The terms of the new agreement are substantially the same as those of the existing agreement, as amended. The additional facility will be available for general corporate purposes, including the Company's stock repurchase program.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

TWENTY-SIX WEEKS ENDED
JULY 29, 2000
VERSUS TWENTY-SIX WEEKS ENDED JULY 31, 1999

All reference to earnings per share amounts are diluted earnings per share unless otherwise indicated. Results for the twenty-six weeks ended July 31, 1999 have been restated to reflect the change in accounting for layaway sales.

Net sales for the second quarter were $2,258.2 million, up 7% from $2,102.8 million for the second quarter last year. For the twenty-six week period net sales were $4,366.3 million, up 8% from $4,033.4 for the same period last year. The increase in sales for both periods is attributable to an increase in same store sales and new stores. Same store sales for the thirteen weeks were flat at Marmaxx (T.J. Maxx and Marshalls), increased 8% at Winners, 9% at T.K. Maxx, 5% at HomeGoods and 19% at A.J. Wright. Same store sales for the twenty-six week period increased 1% at Marmaxx, 10% at Winners, 8% at T.K. Maxx, 7% at HomeGoods and 22% at A.J. Wright. Consolidated same store sales increased 1% and 2% for the thirteen and twenty-six week periods ended July 29, 2000, respectively. Unseasonably cold weather in the Northeast and Midwest throughout most of the six month period this year, most significantly in May and June, had a negative impact on the apparel sales of Marmaxx.

Net income for the second quarter was $114.0 million, or $.39 per common share, versus $115.9 million, or $.36 per common share last year. For the twenty-six week period, income before cumulative effect of accounting change was $244.6 million, or $.83 per common share, versus $238.2 million, or $.74 per common share. After a $5.2 million after-tax charge for the cumulative effect of accounting change, net income for the twenty-six weeks ended July 31, 1999 was $233.0 million or $.72 per share.

The following table sets forth operating results expressed as a percentage of net sales:

	PERCENTAGE OF NET SALES
	THIRTEEN WEEKS ENDED		TWENTY-SIX WEEKS ENDED
	JULY 29, 2000	JULY 31, 1999	JULY 29, 2000	JULY 31, 1999
	(As Restated)		(As Restated)
Net sales	100.0%	100.0%	100.0%	100.0%
Cost of sales, including buying and occupancy costs	75.4	75.4	74.6	74.5
Selling, general and administrative expenses	16.1	15.7	16.1	15.9
Interest expense, net	.2	.1	.1	--
Income before income taxes and cumulative effect of accounting change	8.3%	8.8%	9.2%	9.6%

Cost of sales including buying and occupancy costs as a percentage of net sales, remained constant for the quarter and increased slightly for the year-to-date period as compared to the comparable periods last year.

Marmaxx's cost of sales, as a percentage of net sales remained constant with last year in both periods, reflecting good inventory management.

Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales has increased over the comparable periods last year. This increase is primarily due to increased store payroll costs at Marmaxx as well as a moderation of the sales growth at this division.

Interest expense, net, for the twenty-six weeks ended this year includes interest income of $8.2 million versus $8.0 million of interest income last year. For the thirteen weeks ended, interest income was $3.4 million this year versus $3.5 million last year. The increase in interest expense, net over the comparable period last year is due to interest on the $200 million of 7.45% notes issued in December 1999.

The Company's effective income tax rate is 38.8% for both the three months and the six months ended July 29, 2000 versus 37.4% and 38.4% for comparable periods last year. Last year's effective tax rate included tax benefits associated with the TJX's Puerto Rico net operating loss carryforward.

FINANCIAL CONDITION

Cash flows from operating activities for the six months reflect increases in inventories and accounts payable that are primarily due to normal seasonal requirements and are largely influenced by the change in inventory from year-end levels.

Investing activities for the twenty-six weeks ended July 29, 2000 includes proceeds of $9.2 million from the sale of all of the shares of common stock of Manulife Financial. The shares were received by TJX as part of the demutualization of Manulife Financial in 1999. Investing activities also includes $11.6 million of advances under a construction loan agreement in connection with the expansion of TJX's leased home office facility.

During July 2000 TJX entered into a $250 million 364-day revolving credit agreement. This is in addition to our existing $500 million revolving credit agreement. The additional credit facility will be available for general corporate purposes, including our stock repurchase program. As of July 29, 2000, we had aggregate short-term borrowings of $297.4 million under all of our credit lines, including $3.4 million from our Canadian facility.
